Notes From Steve

6TH GRADE & DOWN CAMPOUT

The campout is this Friday, October 6th at Clent & Lynette Kesey's backyard. The night will include a trip to ChuckE Cheese in Murfreesboro then return for activities. Try to have your tent up by 5:00 PM and if you need a tent see me. Kids will need to be picked up on Saturday by 9:00 AM. More details and a flier are on the bulletin board.

SPIRITUAL WEIGHT TRAINING & INNER BEAUTY SALON

Our next meeting is this Sunday, October 8th, immediately following the evening services. The theme for this year is "Fruit of the Spirit." Joy will be the topic of our discussion. A brief devotional will take place after class and then we will go out to eat.

**Bulletin List Update**

It has been approximately 5 years since we last did a bulletin list update. During that time it is very likely that some no longer desire to receive the bulletin. and we don't know unless we ask.

All members and those presently attending will continue to receive the bulletin. But, if you are NOT A MEMBER OR DO NOT ATTEND AT BYBEE BRANCH, then you will need to let us know that you wish to continue to receive the bulletin. Many have already done so.

To continue to receive the Bybee Banner you may call 473-2486, send email to preacher@bybeebranch.org, or a note to P.O. Box 147, McMinnville, TN 37111-0147. We have allotted the month of October as a time for everyone to respond, however after that date, those who have not responded will be dropped.

Known For Their Water

Unless you're talking about the "freshly squeezed cloud juice" company of Dripping Springs, our community is definitely not known for its drinking water. First time imbibers usually react with a quick spewing out of the malodorous sulfur water found in various household wells around the Hill Country. The Laodiceans of the Bible weren't exactly known for their water, either. Unlike their neighboring cities of Hierapolis and Colossae, the inhabitants of Laodicea often had to rely on a water source some six miles away which was transported through stone pipes. By the time the water reached its destination, it was lukewarm and uninviting. On the other hand, both Hierapolis and Colossae were well known for their water supplies. The former was known for the medicinal value of its hot springs, and the latter for its refreshing cold springs.

When Jesus made His assessment of the various churches of Asia in Revelation 2 and 3, He equated the Laodicean Christians to their current water situation. In effect, they were providing neither refreshment for the spiritually thirsty, nor medicine for the spiritually sick. Like their water supply, they were lukewarm and totally unpalatable to the Lord. If only they had been hot like those of Hierapolis or cold like the Laodiceans, then there would have been cause for praise. Instead of seeing their wretched condition, they were blind to their own deficiencies.

What about you and me? What are we known for? Are we by our actions seeking to heal or refresh others? Are we known for bettering our community, our school, or our family? Is the church known for upholding what is good and abhorring that which is wrong? Are leaders known for their integrity? Are you known for your faithfulness to God and the courage to speak out? Let none of us become distasteful to the Lord. Let none of us become lukewarm in our works for God.

~John Moore~
