Restorations

Our hearts continue to rejoice over the precious souls that have requested prayers. One Wednesday evening Caleb Hughes, Stephanie Jones, and Justin Griffin asked for prayers. On Sunday morning Lisa Thaxton came forward. Please remember these ones in your prayers.

Ladies Holiday Party

The annual Ladies Holiday Party will be at Falcon Manor. Price will be $17. If you have questions, see Mary Flatt.

Simple Thoughts From Scripture

It is a simple fact that one spends time with those things and those people whom he loves. On the other hand, one avoids the things and people he doesn't like. Jeremiah wrote, "... Behold, the word of the LORD is a reproach to them; They have no delight in it." Jeremiah 6:10. In contrast David wrote, "Oh, how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day." Psalms 119:97.

One reason why many do not study and meditate upon God's Word is they simply do not appreciate it. Why? God's Word reflects accurately who we are and sometimes we don't want to see that (James. 1:23-25). God's Word also "shines" the light on our actions (John 3:20-21). In fact, the Word of God is capable of revealing the "thoughts and intents of the heart" (Hebrews 4:12).

Many do not realize the value of God's Word in their lives. It not only reveals our faults but provides the instructions of how to overcome them. In addition it provides great encouragement and motivation. Spend some time with God's Word. You will learn to love it!

Miracles in Mark: Touched By The Savior

Last week's bulletin article was entitled "Touching the Savior." It discussed the story of a woman with an issue of blood reaching out and touching Jesus. This woman was saved by this act of faith. Surrounding this story is another story of saving faith. Before reading the remainder of this article, I encourage for you to read Mark's account of these two miracles, as found in Mark 5:31-43.

Jesus had just returned to Capernaum. When he arrived, a great crowd gathered around him. Not only was the woman with the issue of blood among the crowd, but so was a man named Jairus. Jairus was a ruler of the synagogue. This indicates that Jairus had dedicated life to serving the LORD, and learning more about Him. We also read that Jairus had a daughter who was very sick. She was "at the point of death."

When Jairus saw Jesus he fell down and "implored him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well and live.'" Like the woman with the issue of blood, Jairus also believed in Jesus' great power.

However, before Jesus could make it to the home of Jairus, we read about the woman with the issue of blood reaching out and touching Jesus. Apparently it was during this delay that Jairus' daughter died. It seemed to all around that all hope was lost. One of Jairus' servants is recorded as saying "Why trouble the Teacher any further?"

Jesus responded with the phrase "Do not fear, only believe." Several verses later we read that Jesus took the little girl by the hand and said "Little girl, I say to you, arise." Verse 42 tells us that immediately the girl got up and began walking around.

Is all hope lost? Are you so dead in sin that it seems to be impossible to ever live righteously again? Do you sometimes ask yourself, "Why trouble the teacher any further?"

From this miracle in Mark we learn that it is NOT too late for Jesus. Although Jesus does not literally touch us today, he can make us a "new creation" (II Cor. 5:17). If we "do not fear" and believe in his commandments, the Father will make his home with us (John 14:23). It does not matter how "dead" we are because of our sins; through baptism, Jesus can "make us alive together with him" and nail our record of debt to the cross (Col. 2:13-14).

Wednesday Night - Nov. 26

There will be a special program and no classes on Wednesday night, November 26. Many families are traveling at this time and several teachers will be away. The elders have planned a special program for that night and it will be edifying and encouraging. Please make your plans to be here and bring your visitors with you!

"Some people complain because God put thorns on roses, while others praise Him for putting roses among thorns."
