"And I said: "I pray, LORD God of heaven, O great and awesome God, You who keep Your covenant and mercy with those who love You and observe Your commandments, please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open, that You may hear the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You now..."

(Nehemiah 1:5-6b NKJV)

Announcement From Elders

The elders have decided that due to the dramatic rise of COVID cases in Warren County along with the fact that several members have tested positive that classes this Wednesday night (January 6th) and next Sunday morning (January 10th) will be canceled at the building.

There will also be no Sunday evening service at the building on Jan 10th. The Sunday morning worship at 9 AM will be as normal. Please look for a posting of recorded lessons this Wednesday evening and this coming Sunday evening on Facebook and Youtube. Wearing of masks and social distancing is encouraged.

If you need to pick up communion packets and/or leave your contribution, the outer doors of the building will be unlocked from 8 AM to 5 PM Monday - Friday.

How You Say It

On our way home from Christmas in Kentucky, the kids and I had to stop at an unfamiliar exit for a routine bathroom break. I noticed the sign on the door of the gas station we chose and for some reason it stuck with me. Now, we have all been seeing signs on doors for months about guidelines and restrictions related to precautions that are supposed to protect us and others from the current pandemic. But there was something different about this sign. Oh, it was about masks, but the "tone" of the sign was different. Instead of "masks required" or "do not enter without a mask" or even "protect others – wear a mask," it simply said, "a mask is all we ask."

To some this may seem like I am splitting hairs. Others may think I have way too much time on my hands to even spend time thinking about all the mask signs out there. But I want to make a spiritual connection if I can. You see, all of the mask signs are trying to accomplish the same thing – have people wear a mask inside the establishment. But this one did something that most don't. It asked.

This sign didn't demand. It didn't restrict or sound pushy. It didn't try to guilt me into it. It simply asked.

What if, instead of demanding, pushing, guilt, or any myriad other things we try to get people to listen to God's word ... what if we simply asked? If the softer tone of a mask sign caught my attention, maybe the gentle question of a person who cares would catch the attention of someone in this lost and dying world.

"but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ—" (Ephesians 4:15 NKJV)
