Update on Deven Grove

Deven remains in the hospital in Nashville. He will remain in Vanderbilt until his wounds heal where he can be transported to a rehab center. For those who have asked and want to help, there has been an account opened at Homeland Community Bank. This account is in the name of Regina Johnson. This is Deven’s aunt. She is and will be overseeing his care.

Back to School

Here we are again at the outset of the school year. There are some firsts that will take place as students enter those hallowed walls. Some will be entering the last year of their stay at a particular school building. Others will be entering the first year of a new adventure with new surroundings and new faces. Some will be excited to return to a familiar place to be with friends they have not seen all summer. And yet others will be in dread, not knowing what to expect in this unfamiliar territory, but I digress.

For several that we know of there was a Spiritual rebirth that took place this summer. These young people were surrounded by others who showed them the love of Jesus. Through example and teaching they became a child of God, they had their sins washed away in the blood of Jesus Christ.

Going back to school has the potential to be a great challenge to these new Christians. There will be all sorts of opportunities for Satan to try and tempt them to stray from the truth...“And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light.” (2 Corinthians 11:14). Many times babes in Christ can not see the dangers that mature Christians see.

Here is my encouragement to you...seek out opportunity to help these babes in Christ. There will be opportunities to:

teach - “Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.” (Colossians 1:28)

encourage - “that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding...” (Colossians 2:2) rebuke - “This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,” (Titus 1:13) nurture - “Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering;” (Colossians 3:12)

As you see opportunity, do your part to help these babes in Christ to stay on the straight and narrow path, also watching out for yourselves so that you too are not lead astray.
