Happy New Year!

Wishing you a happy and blessed New Year! May the coming year bring renewed faith, lasting peace, and abundant joy. May God guide your steps, strengthen your hearts, and fill your lives with hope and purpose as you continue to walk faithfully with Him each day. "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you... Let your heart not be troubled..." John 14:27

Welcome the Elkins Family!

We joyfully welcome the Elkins family to our church family and thank God for their decision to place membership with us. As members of the body of Christ, we are united by a shared faith, a common hope, and a commitment to follow the teachings of the New Testament (Ephesians 4:4-6). We look forward to worshiping, working, and growing together as we encourage one another in love and good works (Hebrews 10:24-25). May the Lord bless Scott, Tera, Rylan and Levi as we labor side by side in His service, striving to glorify God in all that we do.

Believe the Gospel

The gospel is the heart of God's plan for man's salvation. The word "gospel" simply means "good news," and it is good news because it reveals what God has done through Jesus Christ to save a lost world. Believing the gospel is not merely an emotional response or intellectual agreement, but a trusting faith that accepts God's message and responds in obedient submission to His will.

Jesus emphasized the necessity of believing the gospel when He said, "He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned" (Mark 16:16). Belief is the starting point. Without faith, it is impossible to please God (Hebrews 11:6). True belief accepts the truth about who Jesus is—the Son of God—and what He accomplished through His death, burial, and resurrection.

The apostle Paul clearly defined the gospel in 1 Corinthians 15:1-4. He wrote, "Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel... that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures." To believe the gospel is to accept these facts as God's revealed truth. Christ's death was necessary because of sin, His burial confirmed His death, and His resurrection provides the hope of victory over sin and death.

Believing the gospel also means trusting God's promises. Jesus declared, "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me has everlasting life" (John 6:47). This belief is not based on human opinions or traditions, but on the inspired Word of God. Faith comes by hearing that Word: "So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Romans 10:17). The Lord's church emphasizes teaching and preaching Scripture because genuine belief must be rooted in God's truth.

However, biblical belief always leads to action. James reminds us that "faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead" (James 2:17). When people truly believe the gospel, they respond as God instructs. In the book of Acts, those who believed the preaching of Christ were moved to repent, confess their faith, and be baptized for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38; Acts 8:12). Their belief motivated obedience, not as a means of earning salvation, but as a response of trusting submission to God's commands.

Believing the gospel also shapes how Christians live daily. Paul wrote, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes" (Romans 1:16). The gospel continues to guide, correct, and strengthen believers as they strive to walk faithfully before God.

In a world filled with confusion and false teachings, the simple message remains: believe the gospel. Trust in Jesus Christ, accept the truth of His saving work, and respond in obedient faith. The gospel is still God's power to save, and it calls every honest heart to believe and follow Him.
