It’s A Girl!

We rejoice with Cooper and Hannah Barr on the birth of their beautiful daughter, Rylee Paige Barr, born September 22! Rylee weighed 7 lbs. 8 oz. and was 20 inches long. Proud grandparents are Kurt and Stephanie Maynard, and proud great-grandparents are Joe and Becky Maynard. We congratulate this wonderful family and pray that God will bless Rylee with many happy and healthy years surrounded by a family who loves her. “Children are a heritage from the LORD” (Psalm 127:3).

Bible Bowl...

Begins on October 4th here at Bybee Branch. Our first area of study will be 2 Corinthians 1-3. Please welcome Brother OC Woodlee as our guest speaker for the morning worship service and at the 2pm adult class period.

Courageous Decisions!

We are thankful for Kobra Moser and her courageous decision to come forward, expressing her need for forgiveness and prayers for strength as she faces temptation and personal struggles. Let us surround Kobra with love, encouragement, and prayer, remembering Paul’s words: “Bear one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2). May we continue to pray that God will strengthen her faith and help her remain steadfast each day.

Wonderful Christian Women

The church is blessed by faithful Christian women who love the Lord, serve His people, encourage others, and quietly accomplish work that often goes unnoticed. Our recent Ladies Day was a wonderful reminder of just how valuable our Christian women are to the congregation. We are thankful for every lady who worked, planned, prepared, decorated, cooked, invited others, welcomed visitors, encouraged friends, and helped make the day a success. Much time and effort went into the event, but even more importantly, it was done with a desire to glorify God and strengthen others spiritually.

The Bible gives us many examples of women whose faithful service made a difference in the kingdom of God. Romans 16:1–2 speaks of Phoebe, whom Paul described as “a servant of the church.” Paul encouraged the Christians at Rome to receive her “in a manner worthy of the saints” and to assist her in whatever business she had need of them. Her example reminds us that faithful women have always been valuable servants in the work of the church.

We also read of Priscilla, who, alongside her husband Aquila, helped teach Apollos “the way of God more accurately” (Acts 18:26). Their home and their lives were devoted to the cause of Christ. Priscilla reminds us of the tremendous influence a godly woman can have when she knows the Scriptures and is willing to help others understand the truth.

Consider also Dorcas, or Tabitha, in Acts 9:36. Scripture describes her as a woman who “was full of good works and charitable deeds which she did.” Her service was so meaningful that when she died, the widows stood nearby weeping and showing the garments she had made for them. Dorcas did not have to stand before crowds to make a difference. She simply used what she had to serve others.

Christian women continue to have that same kind of influence today. Titus 2:3–5 teaches that older women have the responsibility of teaching and encouraging younger women. This shows us that the work of Christian women involves more than preparing meals or organizing events. It involves teaching, mentoring, encouraging, setting godly examples, strengthening families, and helping another generation remain faithful to Christ.

Our Ladies Day demonstrated this beautiful spirit of service. Yet Ladies Day is only one day. The influence of faithful Christian women is seen throughout the year—in Bible classes, homes, acts of hospitality, visits to the sick, words of encouragement, prayers for others, conversations about the Gospel, and countless quiet acts of kindness.

Never underestimate what God can accomplish through a faithful Christian woman. A kind invitation may bring someone to worship. A Bible conversation may plant the seed of the Gospel. A word of encouragement may strengthen someone who is struggling. A godly example may influence children and grandchildren for generations.

To all of our wonderful Christian women: thank you for your work, your sacrifice, your faith, and your love for the Lord. As Paul wrote concerning faithful workers, “your labor is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Corinthians 15:58). May we continue working together, using the abilities God has given us, so that souls may be reached, Christians may be strengthened, and above all, God may be glorified.
