Monday Morning Bible Class

We want to extend our appreciation to Bro. Michael Clarke for speaking to our class on Monday April 13th. His lesson was very timely and thought provoking; it was entitled 'God is still the King.' Our next meeting for Monday Morning Bible Class will be April 27th. Study will continue from 1 Kings 10:23. We hope to see you there!

Bybee Branch Singing Class!

Our last singing class will be on April 19th at 4:30pm. The goal of the class is to provide a structure for the congregation to: 1. Learn new songs for the public service, and 2. Establish an "open" atmosphere for any of the men who would like to learn to lead singing. In February we focused on pitch, tempo, rhythm, and phrasing. We will use the songs 'Thus remember me' and 'All creatures of our God and King' to demonstrate these ideas. How you can help: We will need singers present to make this happen. If you want to try leading a song, come ready to learn your favorite song.

VBS Planning Meeting!

On April 19 after evening Worship service we will host a VBS Planning Meeting; The meeting should not last longer than 15 minutes as this is a preliminary meeting to discuss scheduling. I would like to invite all who desire to participate in VBS. If you are distributing food, teaching classes, and/or working in one of the centers, your attendance is required. Our theme for 2026 VBS is 'Journey With Jesus.' Study outlines have been written and preparation needs to begin. The goal for 2026 is to host VBS using all the scriptural tools given to encourage the youth in the knowledge of God's word. We hope to see you there!

Our Deepest Gratitude

The recent Gospel Meeting has been a tremendous blessing, and it is only fitting that we pause to express our heartfelt gratitude to this wonderful congregation. So much of what made this meeting successful was not seen from the pulpit, but it was felt in every moment, and it was made possible by your love, dedication, and servant spirit.

First, thank you to all who worked diligently to prepare the grounds. The building and surrounding areas were clean, welcoming, and ready to receive both members and visitors. Such preparation may seem like a small thing, but it reflects a deep respect for the work of the Lord and a desire to present ourselves as good stewards. Your efforts helped create an environment that was both comfortable and encouraging for all who attended.

We are also especially grateful for those who devoted time and energy to preparing and serving meals. The food was abundant, thoughtfully prepared, and greatly appreciated by everyone. Beyond the physical nourishment, these meals provided an opportunity for fellowship, time spent encouraging one another, strengthening bonds, and welcoming guests. This kind of hospitality is a beautiful expression of Christian love (Hebrews 13:2), and it did not go unnoticed.

A sincere word of thanks must also be given for your faithful attendance. Night after night, your presence demonstrated your commitment to spiritual growth and your support for the preaching of the gospel. Meetings like these are strengthened by engaged listeners, those who come with open Bibles, attentive hearts, and a desire to learn. Your attendance was an encouragement not only to one another, but also to Brother Michael Clarke as he labored in the Word.

Speaking of Brother Clarke, we are thankful for the sound and edifying lessons he presented throughout the meeting. His willingness to come and preach the truth is a blessing, but it is made even more meaningful when a congregation is eager to receive that truth. Your attentiveness and hospitality surely made his work here both fruitful and enjoyable.

In all of this, we are reminded that the success of such a meeting is not the result of one individual, but of many members working together as the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:12-27). Each act of service, whether seen or unseen, contributes to the greater work of glorifying God and strengthening His people.

May we carry this same spirit of unity, service, and zeal forward in our daily walk. Let us continue to build upon the momentum created during this Gospel Meeting, always striving to grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord.

Thank you again for your hard work, your generosity, and your faithful hearts. To God be the glory for all that has been accomplished.
