Congratulations

Darrell and Lisa Chilton are the proud parents of a baby boy, Hunter Thomas. He was born on Monday, December 26.

Sympathy

We extend our sympathy to the family of Inez Brasher Tippet, aunt of our Mary Flatt. Her funeral was this past Thursday in Louisiana.

Bible Bowl HERE!

This month's Bible Bowl will be here at Bybee Branch, next Monday evening at 7:00 p.m. Any and all are encouraged to attend. The test will be over the book of II Peter.

Those who can help with preparing a dessert are encouraged to do so. If you have any questions, please contact Corretta Lawrence or Missy Biles.

1994 — 1995

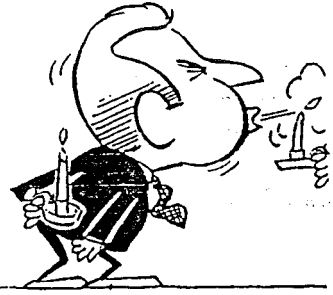

1994 is a closed book! Deposited on the shelf of time, it will not be taken down again until God opens the book of life for his final review and judgment. The brevity of life and the eternal consequences of our actions should impress upon us the necessity of wisely redeeming the time as we enter the new year.

The year ahead is untried, it is a beckoning tomorrow. No doubt it will be filled with difficult decisions requiring spiritual discernment and a closer walk with our Heavenly Father. With that in view and with the knowledge that the Lord will judge all that we do, let us go forward prayerfully, performing our duties faithfully as "unto the Lord."

Improve your time and time will improve us.

Sympathy

We want to extend sympathy to two of our families here at Bybee Branch:

We extend sympathy to the family of sister Emma Parsley whose funeral was this past Friday.

We also extend sympathy to the family of brother Otis Morgan. His funeral was Sunday afternoon.

Let us continue to remember these and others who have recently lost loved ones.

Elders-Deacons Meeting

The monthly Elders-Deacons Meeting will be this coming Sunday afternoon at 4:30.

Bible Preaching

John the Baptist's message from the wilderness was not "Smile—God loves you." It was, "O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come."

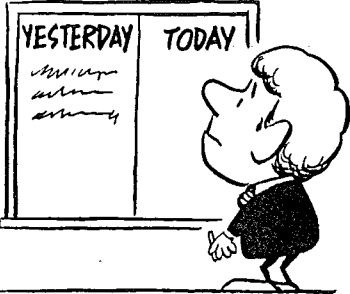

Jeremiah was not put into a miry pit for preaching, "I'm OK; you're OK." It was for crying against the adultery, idolatry and other wickedness of his nation.

Noah's message from the step of the ark was not, "Something good is going to happen to you!" He condemned the world and was a preacher of righteousness.

Jesus Christ was not crucified for saying, "Consider the lilies, how they grow" but for saying, "Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites . . . child of hell . . . fools and blind guides . . . whited sepulchres . . . generation of vipers."

Yesterday's Deeds

If your deeds of yesterday look big, then you probably haven't done much today.

A Lesson From The Book of Hosea

Ephraim has mixed himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake unturned. (Hosea 7:8)

The passage comes in the context of God describing the sins of Ephraim (the northern kingdom). They were involved in fraud, robbery, adultery, alliances with foreign nations, and lying to name a few. In chapter 7, God had compared them to an oven, a cake, and a silly dove. Just consider the illustration about the cake. Most of the ladies and perhaps some of the men here are acquainted with preparing pancakes. If you pour your batter in the pan and never turn the pancake you will soon have one burnt on one side and raw on the other. It is sickening and no one wants to eat it. Ephraim had become "unbalanced" in their dealings. They had mixed themselves with other peoples thus becoming too heavy on one side. They had become burnt by having too much to do with these heathen nations.

There are numerous lessons to be found in this one passage for New Testament Christians. (1) Do not have too much in common with this world unless you expect to get burnt on one side. (2) Christians should be a balanced people. They should not expend too much effort in any one area. Preaching must be balanced between a positive presentation of the facts of the Gospel along with a negative condemnation of sin and outright laziness. Doing one to the exclusion of the other will produce a "cake unturned." (3) God is sickened with us when we allow ourselves to get "cooked" by the world and we allow ourselves to go underdone toward God. Consider yourself, who gets more of your time, effort and concern, God or the World?

The simple little statement found in the book of Hosea has profound teachings that we should realize are found in all of the prophetic books, yea even the whole Bible. God's word is truly a treasure chest full of valuable jewels!

~Tony Lawrence~

"Let Your Light So Shine"

Once a traveler came to a French village, night was approaching, and the people were hurrying through the streets. The traveler noticed that each person was carrying a bronze lamp. To his inquiry about this, he received the following reply:

"These people are going to the village church. When it was built, it was decided that each member would bring his own light to the night service. There is no other way to light the church, and everyone goes to make the church brighter. Each one realizes that if he is not there, the church will be darker."

The traveler went to the meeting house, and there he found that on every seat was a place to hang a lamp. As more members came, the building became brighter and brighter. Do you realize the church is darker when you stay home? Your light is needed every Sunday night and every Wednesday night.

A.M. Personal Evangelism
P.M. Young Men To Conduct Services

Just One "t" in Dirty

He was not too well educated and his manner was somewhat rough and crude. He became a Christian and was boiling with enthusiasm to be of service to his Savior.

The preacher handed him a list of ten names with this explanation: "These men are all members of the church, but they seldom attend. Some of them are prominent men of the city. Contact them anyway you can. Here is some of the church stationary that you can use to write them letters. Get them back to church."

The man accepted the challenge with rugged determination. About three weeks later, a letter came to the office from a prominent physician in the city — his name had been on the list. Inside the letter was a $1,000 check and this note:

"Dear Preacher: Enclosed is my check for $1,000 to make up for my missing contributions for the past several weeks. I'm sorry for missing worship, but be assured that I'll be present this Lord's day and every Lord's day following. I won't miss worship again if I can help it.

Sincerely, Dr. Jones

P.S. Please tell your secretary that there is only one "t" in dirty and no "c" in skunk." (Copied)

"Behold, What a Weariness is It!"

These WORDS OF CONTEMPT for the Lord's Worship are attributed to the Israelites of Malachi's day. (Mal. 1:13) These bored "worshippers" further showed their disrespect for God by bringing offerings of sick, lame and blind animals. God's message to these hypocrites was, "Ye are cursed with the curse ..."

Do WE recognize ourselves? How many of us fidget impatiently through the worship services, sacrificing an hour or two each week to the Lord, saying within ourselves, "Behold, what a weariness is it?"

Our periods of worship to God should be the most precious times of the week. We should cherish these opportunities for many reasons, but here are three:

- 1. These are the only times in the week in which we can enjoy such great, spiritual fellowship with the entire congregation.
- 2. Many throughout the world do not have these opportunities which we take for granted.
- 3. Most important, it is the loving sacrifice of Jesus on the cross that has made such opportunities possible.

Worship to our GOD is the natural outpouring of a thankful heart. Worship refreshes, inspires and challenges. BUT God never intended it to be WEARISOME.

~Selected~

So many today are clamoring that worship is not exciting enough. Perhaps the problem exists in the heart of the worshipper! T.L.

"They" Misled Us!

"They" told us that if we'd relax about sex, take our clothes off and not get all uptight about it, there would be no more sex crimes. So we let it all hang out, and the incidence of rape has increased 10% in one year. Maybe we'd better question some of the other advice "they" gave us.

"They" told us we'd been too tough on criminals, that we should go easy on them. So we went easy on them, and the rate of violent crime has increased 47% since 1968.

"They" said that churches were "old-fashioned," that they must modernize, liberalize, rationalize, compromise. And those that compromised most are shrinking fastest. If it is appearing up to here that "they" gave us some awfully bad advice, "they" did.

"They" insisted that our schools must boot God out and rely on enhancing Junior's intelligence. So we graduated a generation of Juniors with refined intellects and undisciplined emotions, so school-age suicides have soared 92% in two years.

"They" told us alcoholism and drug addiction were sicknesses, not crimes. Now we're gagging, choking, strangling on forbidden fruit.

"They" said informal marriage was enough, so now the odds are five to four your rapture will be ruptured, and two in seven that the next baby will be born illegitimate.

Who are "they" who've been thus misleading us? "They" are the materialists who defy the finite sciences. "They" meant well, but their intentions are paving the road to hell.

Now I've quit commenting and gone to preaching. I don't mean to, but I can't separate goodness and badness from today's news and explain it. Every ugly headline in today's newspaper, and yesterday's and tomorrow's, is somebody's emotions gone out of whack. He might be as smart as all get-out; but if he's emotionally color blind, he's an unguided missile destined inevitable to self-destruct.

Spaceship earth came with a book of instructions; let's see what it says; It says we should not be slothful in business. In fact, he who does not work-let him not eat . . . It says women should wear modest apparel . . . It says don't steal anything-nothing!! . . . It says don't get drunk-period! . . . It says you sleep only with your wife . . . It says you don't do what you "want," you do what you "ought" . . . and for those whose consciences are anesthetized, it specifies which is which.

In other words, if that rule book were not divinely inspired, it would be the best blueprint for an orderly existence. If It did not promise life hereafter, It would still contain the best formula for a good life here.

This was written by Paul Harvey, Dec. 3, 1974.

Address Changes In Directory

Since the time our church directories were prepared and now there have been some changes in some of the members addresses. The ones we know should be changed are:

Steve & Sharla Hillis; 1138 Short Mtn. Road
Shirley Parker; 3774 Old Smithville Road

If your address is incorrect in the new church directory, please call the office and we will publish a correction in the bulletin.

Notice Teachers

The Teachers Work Room upstairs is used by many of our teachers and is an excellent resource room. However, since the room is so popular and gets lots of use it needs to be kept clean and organized. A list is on the bulletin board for two teachers to keep the room clean and organized for one month. We will put in the bulletin each month the names of those in charge of keeping the room up. There is a check list on the bulletin board in the Teacher Work Room for the things to do. Those in charge for February 1995 are: Regina Templeton and Merideth Atnip

Sunday's Sermons

A.M. A Study of Blood
P.M. The Lord Knows Them That Are His

Does a Preacher Notice?

Does a preacher notice what is going on in the audience? Why, of course he does. Generally, he is standing a little higher than members of the congregation and therefore is able to look down upon them in the course of a worship service.

What does a preacher see? He sees those who have obviously come to worship God. They enter into every phase of the worship. They sing the songs, join in with the prayers, listen to the sermon and partake of the Lord's Supper. They do it week after week and it is a wonderful thing to behold.

But a preacher also sees some who evidently are doing no more than going through some sort of ritual. They are so bored you think they are going to drop off to sleep (oops, I didn't mean to touch a nerve.)

And there are those who have even gone past that stage. They whisper, chew gum, write notes, play with babies, clean their fingernails and look at their watches in the attitude of the ancient Jews who asked, "When will the Sabbath be over?"

What does the Lord's day mean to you? Be careful how you answer. You might be telling on yourself. You shouldn't expect to put 5¢ worth of effort into it and receive a million dollar blessing. That's a little higher return than anybody is entitled to. Yes, I can tell who enjoyed the service and who didn't.

~John Gipson~

Bridal Tea

A Bridal Tea in honor of Dawn Kirby and Brad Hobbs this coming Sunday afternoon, February 12, from 1-3 p.m. in the fellowship room at the church. This will be a Kitchen and Bath shower.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

WHEN IT IS ANNOUNCED THAT SOMEONE IS SICK, DO YOU:

Send them a card, offer help, visit them at the hospital, or get irritated with announcements about people you don't even know?

WHEN NEW SOULS ARE ADDED TO THE LORD, DO YOU:

Introduce yourself and welcome them or visit and encourage them?

WHEN THERE ISN'T ENOUGH SOCIAL ACTIVITY, DO YOU:

Invite groups of Christians into your home, plan and carry out activities for either adults or children? Become a friend to someone in need, make it your place to greet visitors, or invite people who are weak into your home?

WHEN BIBLE CLASSES ARE PROVIDED, DO YOU:

Attend faithfully and encourage others to do so, prepare your lesson, contribute to the class discussion or sit with your mouth shut waiting for the class to be more interesting?

WHEN SOMEONE IS ABSENT FROM THE ASSEMBLY, DO YOU:

Call to find out why, exhort and encourage them, offer transportation or even notice that they are missing?

WHEN THERE IS A SPECIAL PROGRAM, DO YOU:

Help advertise the meeting, invite others to come, invite the guest speaker into your home for a meal or Bible study, support the effort with your attendance or ignore the whole thing?

NOW FROM WHAT ACTIVITY DO YOU FEEL YOU HAVE BEEN EXCLUDED?

Are You Lost in the 'Woulds?'

I would go to church, but it is my one day off . . .
I would go to church, but I am too busy.
I would go to church, but I am too tired.
I would go to church, but it is too hot.
I would go to church, but I don't feel well.

Come out of the 'woulds' and attend Bible School and Worship Services.
COME! A hearty welcome awaits you!

Bible Bowl

Our young people attended the Bible Bowl at Woodbury last evening. We extend our congratulations to the Main Street congregation in Manchester, they placed first. East End and Antioch tied for second, and we tied with Hebron for third place. The kids did a great job only missing 4 questions. Let them know they are doing great!

Next month's Bible Bowl will be the last one until next fall. It will be held at the Mt. Leo congregation, and will cover II John, III John, and Jude.

Compulsions

Compulsions to Work

A compulsion is an "obligation, compelling force and motive." We all need motivation to do the work with which we are charged. Christians have motives of the very highest order to send us forth to sinners.

Compulsion From Above

Jesus said all authority is His. (Mt. 28:18) He is our Master and Lord, and we cannot ignore an order that comes from Him. He asks, "Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46) We must be busy in the work of teaching the lost because our Lord and Master has give us the command to do so. (Mk. 16:15-16)

Compulsion From Within

When a person becomes a Christian, something happens inside. Christ takes control of his life, living in him by faith. (Gal. 2:20) When you are "filled" with the love of Christ, that which compelled Him to do for sinner will compel you to tell sinners that He did die for them.

When love has good news, it must be shared. One time a man in a hospital rushed down the hall crying, "She's better, she's gonna be okay. She's better!" He shouted that to everyone he saw as he rejoiced. No one knew who he was talking about or any of the details. But, they knew he had news too good to keep to himself. And that is what must motivate us to tell everyone we can about Jesus. We have news too good to keep to ourselves.

Compulsions From Around Us

The world is filled with sin, crime, and ungodliness. Millions are living in sin. And they are dying at a frightening rate—out of Christ. Do we care? Does it bother us at all? Think about it.

Let us pray for more love for souls. Let us ask God to help us have hearts that hurt for souls in sin. Take a drive through your city to observe the signs of wickedness. You will surely be compelled to work for Jesus.

There can be only one conclusion. WE MUST BE SOUL WINNERS FOR JESUS. Remember, Jesus cursed a fig tree because it was idle and bore no fruit. He will do the same with fruitless Christians. (John 15:1-8)

How Did You Like the Sermon?

This is a familiar question. By what guidelines do we determine a good sermon. I suggest a sermon is successful if:

- 1. It is true to God's word.
- 2. It is preached in love.
- 3. It is prepared to meet a need.
- 4. It is spoken so that all can understand.
- 5. It glorifies God.
- 6. It challenges people to think.

Sermons are to be measured not by the approval and pleasure of people, but by their response in holy living, Godly action, and true Christian dedication.

Sermons are preached not to be liked, but to be lived. The question in the heart of the faithful minister is, "What does God want?"

Paul's admonition is still true - "If I were trying to win human approval, I should never be Christ's servant. (Gal. 1:10)

~From the Exhorter~

I Missed Sunday Night Services

(Check the Right Blank)

- Because I had company. (Did your company keep you from work?)
- Because there was a good television program I didn't want to miss. (Is that putting first things first? Matt. 6:33).
- Because I feel that once is enough. (Would you recommend that we close the doors Sunday night and have no service at all?)
- Because I was tired. (Would you have been too tired if there had been a $25 reward for going?)
- Because I was lazy. (Be honest).
- Because I had a date. (Why not bring your "date" to services? Is your "date" more important than the Lord?)
- Because I don't like the preacher. (You don't worship the preacher do you?)
- Because I love pleasure more than I love the Lord. (Heb. 11:24-26).
- Because I am not interested in preaching the gospel to the lost. (Why do you come Sunday morning?)
- Because the biggest crowd is present on Sunday morning. (You helped make it smaller Sunday night).
- Because I just didn't want to go. (Why? Are your affection set on things above? Col. 3:1-2)
- If you are unwilling to check any of the above "reasons" for missing the Sunday night service, why not be present Sunday night?

Bible Bowl

This coming Monday evening will be the final session for the Bible Bowl this season. It will be conducted at the Mt. Leo congregation beginning at 7:00 p.m. Our students have studied hard and have gotten a ribbon each month and presently are in second place over all. Why not plan to be present Monday night to let our kids know that we stand behind them? It is great to see approximately 150 school age kids with great attitudes toward one another and toward God's Word.

We will not be taking the bus since the meeting will be here in town. Remember to try to get there a little early and sit with our group. If you have any questions please contact Steve Hillis, Ronnie Rogers, or Tony Lawrence.

The test will cover II John, III John and Jude.

There Are No Surrogate Christians

"For I could wish that I myself were anathema from Christ for my brethen's sake." (Rom. 9:3)

There may be some legitimate application for surrogacy, but surrogate wives and surrogate mothers is not one of them! Both ungodly activities are practiced today with almost unanimous acceptance, especially as it pertains to motherhood. One only needs to read God's word concerning the relationship of marriage to understand that these "substitutes" do not, and cannot, be in harmony with Christian principles.

Many seem to have the idea that even in the church surrogacy is legal and legitimate. Jesus told us to teach (Mt. 28:19), but the majority of the members expect "someone else" to do it for them. James tells us to visit (Jas. 1:27), but most members expect "others" to do it for them. Jesus built the church for His people, but the vast majority of its members are not involved in any of its work—let "others" be their surrogate.

One day, the Lord is coming to bring the world to a close (II Pet. 3). There is going to be a judgment (Jn. 12:48). Every man is going to have to give account for the deeds done in the flesh whether good or bad (II Cor. 5:10). It is going to be at that time that many who claim to be "good Christians" are going to be looking desperately for a surrogate, but there will be none to be found. Isn't there some way to encourage every reader to get personally involved in working in some way in the church? As much as we may want it differently, there are no surrogate Christians!

~Eddie Whitten~

Hypocrites in the Church

The man who says he is kept away from Christ by hypocrites is not influenced by them anywhere else. Society is crowded with them, and yet he never thinks of becoming a hermit. Married life is full of them, but that doesn't make him remain a bachelor. Hell will be full of them, and he is not doing anything to keep from going there. He makes you think he is trying to avoid hypocrites; and yet, he takes not one single step towards the only place where no hypocrites can go — Heaven.

Bible Bowl Team #1

Seventeen of our young people along with a number of adults were present at Mt. Leo for the final Bible Bowl of the season. Our youth demonstrated their Bible study skills by placing first along with the Antioch and Hebron congregation. They missed 0 on the test. (By the way if you think the test was easy, take a look at it on the bulletin board and see how well you would have done.)

In the season standings our young people came in second behind the Antioch congregation. The young people from East End came in third with the New Union youth coming in fourth. During the year six different congregations came in first.

It was great to be a part of an effort where such good attitudes prevail and strong support exists between sister congregations. If these young people continue on the path of Bible study which they have shown the future of the church looks bright. Be sure to give our young people a pat on the back, the exhortation is well deserved!

Visit Needed!

A preacher habitually told his congregation that if they needed a visit to drop a note in the contribution plate. One Sunday morning after services he discovered a note that said: "I am one of your loneliest members and heaviest contributors. May I have a visit this evening?" The note was signed by his wife.

No Excuse Day

To make it possible for everyone to go to church this next week, we are going to have a special no excuse church day:

Cot will be provided for those who say that is the only day they can "sleep in."

Murine will be provided for those with weak eyes and tired vision from watching late, late shows the night before.

Steel helmets will be provided for those who say the roof would cave-in if they attended church.

Blankets will be available for those who think the church is too cold, and fans will be provided for those who think it is too stuffy.

There will be hearing aids for folks who say the preacher speaks to softly and ear plugs for the ones who believe he speaks too loudly.

Relatives will be persuaded to attend for the benefit of the folks who believe it is the only day they can go to see their loved ones.

Enough TV dinners will be provided for those who claim they have to stay at home to cook.

One section of the church will be charmingly landscaped with trees and flowers for people liking to spend the day basking in nature's beauties.

Poinsettias and lilies will be provided to please those who only go to church on Easter and Christmas.

A local undertaker has loaned a coffin for those who never go to church unless they go to a funeral.

Just suppose Jesus would begin tomorrow to make people as sick as they claim to be on the Day of Rest. Just suppose the Lord would take away the children or loved ones people use an excuse for staying away from church?

Perhaps this sounds humorous, but such excuses are serious. We could all make excuses to stay away from anyplace we do not wish to go. Too bad it is all too often — the church.

Thanks For Teaching Aids To Thailand

A big thanks to those who helped make the visual aids for the teachers in Thailand. The ladies were very excited and so thankful for the material and would like to have more to use in their classrooms. We already have two reports of the material being used. You may wonder about them being able to use English material. Two of the preacher's wives can speak English and do a good job of translating. In the class, there were about 35-40 ladies and they were going to use it about 6 weeks and then rotate it to another congregation who would do the same. May God bless you for helping with this material.

Thanks,
Thurman Bennett

The Sunday class of children. Now we have two classes. 5-10 years old, Rachanee teaching with about 25-35 children. "This is the picture from McMinnville sent to us. Thank you very much ladies from U.S.A. because you give the pictures for us to teach Sunday class."

Sister Phensri Prakrai was teaching the word of God on Sunday morning 9:00 a.m. using the picture of Adam and Eve. "Thank you ladies from Bybee Branch Church of Christ that you gave Bible picture to us at Udon. May God bless you all."

Restoration & Baptisms

Sunday was a great day at Bybee Branch. Sunday morning Mickey Whiteaker came forward to be restored and Sunday evening Kimberly Melson and Brett Merritt were baptized into Christ.

Honor To Whom Honor Stanley & Elma McNery

The Lord smiled on Warren County when He blessed us with the coming of Stanley & Elma McNery. For more than four decades they have exerted a tremendous influence for the Lord's cause. Just ask anyone and it will not take you long to realize that this. Two elders, Charlie Turner at East End and Harold Griffith at Mt. View both have told me that they were baptized by brother "Mac" several years ago. I am sure that there are dozens who have obeyed the Lord because of the influence of this godly couple.

As was demonstrated this past Sunday when one was restored and two were baptized, brother "Mac" still has the ability to preach with conviction and compassion. His kind and caring attitude is appreciated by all. A source of strength and conviction is sister Elma McNery. Though small in stature, she stands tall and strong as a woman of considerable wisdom. The two compliment each other very well. Their love and devotion to one another is apparent to all who see them. They are a first class christian couple.

We will miss them greatly at Bybee Branch. Brother Mac always has an encouraging word to the song leaders, the young people, those who responded to the invitation, the Bible class teachers, and in a very special way to this preacher. Our loss will be Canada's gain. The selfish part of us wants to keep them with us. The rational part says that the church in Selkirk will be greatly benefited by having the wisdom and experience of the McNerys with them. We bid them God speed as they leave us to return to their earthly family. We do not grieve too deeply for we all plan to spend eternity together at our eternal home!

~Tony Lawrence~

Power of the Gospel

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the only thing that will stop men from sinning. It has already been proven that jail houses won't stop it; penitentiaries have got to be enlarged, our United States Government are enlarging all Federal prisons, and yet they are crowded. The last reports are they are flooded and more room must be made. The state penitentiaries are crowded and your jail houses are flooded and the only thing to stop men from sinning is the Gospel of Christ. The electric chair won't stop them, hanging won't stop them, and the only thing that will stop them, gentlemen, is what the Apostle Paul had in mind when he said "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth," (Rom. 1:16) It is powerful enough to stop a man from bootlegging, it is powerful enough to stop a man from beating his wife, it is powerful enough to make him stay away from his neighbor's wife, and it is powerful enough to make a woman let her neighbor's husband alone.

Landmarks Regarding Marriage

God has established certain basic landmarks regarding spiritual things. These landmarks in the words of Solomon should not be removed (Prov. 22:28) One important area in which God has established some definite landmarks, is in the area of marriage and the home.

First, God has made it clear that marriage is divine in origin. The home did not evolve into being after many years of trial and error, on the contrary, God established the home in the very beginning. Furthermore, Jesus emphasized this point by saying: "What God hath joined together, let not man put asunder" (Matt. 19:6). God is the witness to the marriage vows (Mal. 2:14).

Second, marriage is universal. It is clear that God intended for marriage to be universal because he established it in the beginning (Gen. 2). He wants people everywhere to enjoy the benefits of the home. Any idea that would make marriage a "church institution" conflicts with this basic truth.

Third, marriage is monogamic. It is God's will that one man marry one woman. This is monogamy. Adam did not have several wives nor Eve several husbands. In the beginning we see God's will revealed. In I Cor. 7:3 this principle is emphasized again.

Fourth, marriage is for life. Since marriage is such a close and personal relationship and since children are involved in the marriage relationship, it is only logical, therefore, that God would make it a life-long commitment. People should not enter this relationship without serious thought concerning the future.

Many false views have been and are being taught regarding marriage. These basic landmarks should help us to evaluate these ideas and arrive at the truth regarding marriage.

Six Excellent Rules to Promote Harmony Among Church Members Today

1. To remember that we are all subject to failing of one kind or another.
2. To bear with — and not magnify — each other's infirmities (Gal. 6:1-2).
3. To pray one for another in public and particularly in private (James 5:16).
4. To watch against shyness of each other and put the best construction on any action that has the appearance of opposition or resentment.
5. To observe the just rules of Solomon — that is, to leave off contention before it is meddled with (Proverbs 17:4).
6. If a member has offended, to consider how Godlike it is to forgive, and how unlike a Christian to seek revenge.

Telephone Pole Salvation

Several years ago, when my family and I lived in Abilene, Texas, a religious census was taken in that city. Many of the census takers were members of the Lord's church. One of these workers was unfortunate enough to knock on the door of a hot-headed denominationalist who began to scoff at baptism when she learned that the census taker was a member of the church of Christ. Among other rash statements, she said, "I would just as soon climb that telephone pole out there as to be baptized!"

Well, now, if the Lord has told her to climb a telephone pole, she had better do it. And after she has climbed to the very top of the very tallest telephone pole in the world, she will still not have achieved telephone pole salvation! She would still have been saved by the grace of God, even though she did the climbing. She would only have rendered obedience as a servant to his master, and Jesus said, "When ye shall have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do." (Luke 17:10)

The Lord has not commanded us to climb telephone poles, but he has commanded us to be baptized. Luke records Peter's instructions to the household of Cornelius after they had been taught the truth. "And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ." (Acts 10:48). After Cornelius had done that, he was saved. We know he was, because Jesus said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved." (Mk. 16:16) Cornelius had not achieved water salvation, either. He was saved by God's grace because he was still an unprofitable servant; he had done only that which it was his duty to do.

I Know Something Good About You

Wouldn't this old world be better
If folks we meet would say,
"I know something good about you!"
And then treat us just that way?

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy
If each handclasp warm and true
Carried with it this assurance,
"I know something good about you!"

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If the good that's in us all

Were the only things about us
That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy?
If we praised the good we see?
For there's such a lot of goodness
In the worst of you and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking too?
You know something good about me!
I know something good about you!

Did Christ Attend the Prom?

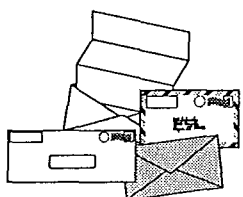

This truly is a wonderful time of the year. Among many exciting events of the season, one of the most exciting, for many high school students is the prom. What is it about a prom that causes so much excitement? Webster defines "prom" as "a formal dance given by a high school or college class." If dancing is not wrong then there is nothing wrong with the prom. If dancing is wrong, then the prom is wrong. Following is a list of reasons why dancing is wrong. Please give careful and prayerful consideration to these:

1. It is forbidden in the New Testament (Gal. 5:19-21; lasciviousness).
2. It destroys one's influence for good (I Cor. 15:33; I Tim. 4:12).
3. It depends solely on the mingling of the sexes (I Cor. 6:13,18; 10:8; leads to fornication).
4. It arouses desires that are immorally fulfilled (Matt. 5:28).
5. It is not to the "glory of God" (I Cor. 10:31).

Very few Christians will deny the fact that dancing is sin. So the next question is "Could I go to the prom without sinning?" Invariable someone says, "I won't dance, but I want to go anyway." Paul said, "to abstain from the very appearance of evil" (I Thess. 5:22). Could one go into a bar without leaving the impression that he is guilty of the sin of drinking? He may not drink, but because the primary purpose for a bar is so people can drink, the world believes that to be his purpose. Since the primary reason for a prom is to dance, even though one may not dance, the world believes he is. Even if you do not, you place a temptation before yourself and others to sin through lust. This fact you cannot deny!

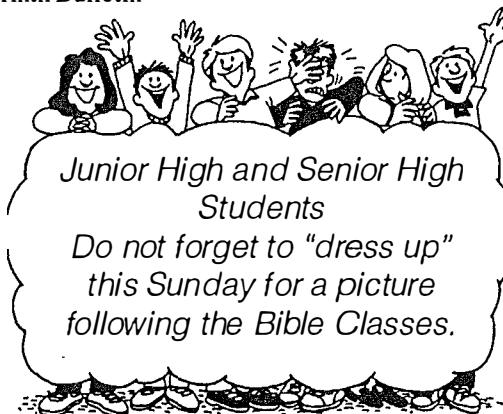

Now, back to our original question, "Did Christ attend the prom? The Bible clearly teaches us that Christ did not sin (I Pet. 2:22) Jesus was careful to influence people for good. We should do nothing that Jesus would not do. He said He would be with us, only if we would remain faithful to Him. You answer the question, "Did Christ attend the prom?" Young people, are you with Jesus? Think about it. Nothing is more important in all the world than your soul's salvation, not even the "once in a lifetime prom" (Matt. 16:25).

Out of the Mouth of Babes . . .

After Jesus had made his triumphal entry into Jerusalem and after cleansing the Temple He was lauded and praised by little children. They cried, "Hosanna to the Son of David?" Upon hearing this the chief priests and the scribes came to Him and asked Jesus if He heard what they were saying. He then quoted to them Psalms 8:2 where David prophesied that, "Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have perfect praise." (Matt. 21:16)

All of this is important because it shows something that we often overlook: children have an unbiased judgement that we as adults many times do not have. They can perceive things that we do not. They have a genuine purity that we do not have. Likewise, they have an honesty that we sometimes find offensive but does anyone doubt its truth? It appears that children see the hypocrisy in us that we do not see. When a little child reproves us we should take a careful look at ourselves rather than trying to rationalize it away. In Jesus' day they saw things that the very highest of the religious leaders did not see!

~Tony Lawrence~

I Dreamed The Other Night

I dreamed that death came the other night and, as Heaven's gates swung wide,
With kindly grace an angel ushered me inside.

There to my astonishment stood folks I'd known on earth
But had judged and labeled as unfit and of little worth.

Indignant words rose to my lips but were never set free,
For every face showed stunned surprise — No one had expected me!

Prom Alternative Trip

For the second year in a row Sharla and I have had the privilege of traveling with the youth group on the prom alternative trips. This year we were given the opportunity to coordinate the trip to Six Flags, and we are glad we did, even though it was an experience we will not soon forget.

Words cannot express how well mannered the kids were and how much help the chaperones gave us. So this my way of thanking all those involved:

Christy, Christina, Angela, Keely, Mike, Rebecca, Kara, Brandon, Andy, Jared, Michael, Mark, Lynette, Andrea, Andrew, Alan and Micah. Thanks for following instructions, not being "too" unruly, and being a joy to be around and know.

Becky, Jennifer, Patsy, Joe, Marsha, Tony and Corretta. Thanks for all the help watching out for the safety of the kids, and for the comments and suggestions that made my job so much easier.

Rodney. Thanks for all of the above and for driving the bus. It would have been hard to pull this trip off without you.

Terann. Thanks for not complaining too much about getting wet and those "sweet bellies."

To all the parents of these kids you should be proud of them because they do carry themselves well, and thank you for allowing them to go along and be a part of the group. We truly appreciate being a part of such a faithful congregation as Bybee Branch and have the full support of the elders for these trips. Thank you for your prayers that surely helped us have a safe trip.

In Christian Love,

Steve Hillis

A Letter to Young Parents

Dear Young Parents:

You haven't been married very long and your children are still very small. May I suggest some things to you that I believe will make your lives happier?

1. Do not allow your activities to become so numerous that you neglect your worship and service to the Lord. It's easy to become so concerned with pleasurable or materialistic things that you forget God.
2. Young fathers and young mothers, do not forget to know those little children at your house. Fathers, it is good to provide materially for your family but don't spend all your time and give all your love to your career. Remember your children do not live by bread alone. Most children think their parents are rich anyway. Take time to talk to them; know them; watch them grow. Take time to play with them. If you don't, you will regret it when they are older. And mothers, all the above is good advice for you, too.
3. I don't know how to convey to you how short a time you will have your children. If they stay at home with you for eighteen or nineteen years, it will seem to you no more than two or three years. How many of us who are somewhat older have looked at each other in a bewildered manner and asked, "Where have all the years gone?" There is so little time on this earth to love one another and to do the services that love requires. Please don't waste an hour of it.
4. Your children will not miss the material benefits that you provide them, but they will miss you. In this, as in other ways, they are much like Jesus — they seek not yours but you. While your children are little they are ready for heaven, for "of such is the kingdom of heaven." Whether they continue to be so depends on you.

~Bert Mercer~

Letter From McInerys

Hello Ya'll:

One thing that I was taught many years ago was to always show gratitude, when people show their kindness and love toward me, and I want the lovely people at Bybee Branch and others who showered us with their generosity and love on April 9, 1995

It was a day fraught with both sadness and joy, and a day that we will always cherish for all the pictures and the video of the occasion we are so grateful, our nephews and nieces (if we can get the 26 together) are anxious to see it.

What can we say? Thank you doesn't seem adequate, Thanks a million times.

In Christian Love,

Bro. Mac & Elma

Also sympathy to the family of Euclid Foster. He was the brother of our Cora Stenbridge and brother-in-law of Dora Mullican. He passed away this past Sunday morning.

Temporary Housing

Just a few days ago Hurricane Allison blew in on the Gulf Coast. It did very little damage compared with what some of the major hurricanes of recent years (Hugo, Andrew). However, the news media reported that some were forced from their homes and would be located in temporary housing. This made me think of the vast number of tents erected for temporary housing during the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew. The thought of temporary housing made me think of a valuable lesson regarding this life.

Our physical bodies are only temporary housing. Paul wrote the Corinthians, "Wherefore we faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. For we know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens." (2 Corinthians 4:16-5:1, ASV). When one realizes that the word "tabernacle" found in verse one refers to a tent, the parallel becomes all the more understandable. Just as the children of Israel used a tent for the tabernacle during their wilderness wandering and settlement of the land, Solomon later erected a permanent structure that was the strong desire of his father David.

One does not get too attached to a temporary house, especially a tent. In fact, those who have been placed in temporary housing tell how they long to be in a "real house." This is exactly the point which Paul makes in the verses that follow in 2 Corinthians 5. In verse 2, he speaks of our longing for our heavenly habitation. He stresses that we are not necessarily wanting to be out of a habitation altogether but that we simply express our desire to be "with the Lord." Jesus is preparing "dwelling places" for those who serve Him (cf. Jn. 14:1-3).

As one thinks about this body, he certainly will want to take care of it. It may have to last for several years, but one must never forget that it is only temporary housing. As one plans for the permanent dwelling place he must keep in mind that where he lives will be determined by how he lives in his temporary housing.

Finding Time to Read the Bible

Faith only comes as we hear God's Word. (Rom. 10:17) Yet, so many seemingly cannot find time each day to spend a few minutes in God's Book. How can we, who preach and teach you, help? Maybe with a few suggestions as to how you can find time to read the Bible daily.

1. Carry a Bible in your attache case, purse or coat pocket. No telling when you might have a few minutes and could read if a Bible were available.
2. Put a Bible under your pillow or by your bed. If you cannot sleep, then you can turn the light on and read awhile.
3. Have a Bible with you while waiting for unpunctional people, or for a meeting to start. Each minute of our time is important.
4. Keep a Bible in your glove box. You may be in a traffic jam or be stuck waiting for someone.

God Wants Us to Grow

Peter says, "Putting away therefore all wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speaking, as newborn babes, long for the spiritual milk which is without guile, that ye may grow thereby unto salvation; . . ." (I Pet. 2:1,2).

Paul says, "And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, as unto babes in Christ. Ifed you with milk, not with meat; for ye were not yet able to bear it; nay, not even now are ye able; for ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and do ye not walk after the manner of men?" (I Cor. 3:1-3)

Paul thus severely rebuked the Corinthian brethren for their failure to grow. In consideration of the time and the opportunities they should have been full grown, but they were babes; they should have been spiritual, but they were carnal; they should have been able to receive the meat of the gospel, but thy had to be fed with milk. They had not properly used their opportunities; they had not seized their advantages. They had not grown as they could have grown and as they should have grown.

When one is baptized into Christ he is a babe — whether he is 14 years of age, or 60 years of age. But, he is a babe WITH AN OBLIGATION TO GROW. God expects us to grow and demands of us that we grow. We cannot be pleasing to God unless we are growing constantly. We grow by study, by prayer, by faithful attendance, by teaching others, and by diligent service. It is tragic indeed when one fails to grow. How we must grieve the heart of God. There are some in the church who are scarcely one inch taller in spiritual matters than they were the day they were baptized into Christ.

God's condemnation abides upon us in the event we fail to grow as we ought to grow.

Liberty

What does it mean to be free? John Withrop said, "There is double liberty." It is true that we have a double liberty. The dope addict and sex pervert says he is free. He is free from Christ but slave to sin. "While they promise liberty, they themselves are servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage" (II Pet. 2:19) Freedom from Christ is the liberty exercised by the beast of the field. It is liberty to evil. In this liberty man grows more evil and often becomes worse than the animals of the forest. The liberty offered by Christ will restrain and subdue this animal liberty.

True liberty is conformity to the great moral code of the Bible. Civilization cannot exist without these principles. True liberty is that which is just, good, and holy. "For the law of life in Christ Jesus hath set me free from the law of sin and death" (Rom. 8:2) There would be no dope addicts and alcoholics if everyone refused to try dope or drink alcohol. Raccoon John Smith, a pioneer preacher said, "I never put anything in my mouth that will addle my brain." To this I say "amen and amen."

Susan Smith Kills Two Sons

Millions of Other Mothers Kill Their Children Also

Susan Smith killed her sons by drowning them. She ran her car into a lake in South Carolina with her two sons strapped in child restraint seats and let them drown. Our nation is outraged! But that same day several hundred other mothers killed their babies with the blessing of our nation. On January 22, 1973 the U.S. Supreme Court made it legal for mothers to kill their babies. Since that time more than 27 million mothers have done just as Susan Smith did. Enough babies have been killed to populate several states the sized of Alabama, and more than the total population of Canada. Something is wrong in a nation when its Declaration of Independence says, "All men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" and yet it murders thousands of babies every year. The Supreme court said the word "person" as used in our constitution does not include the unborn. It is certainly true- "The unborn are the most absolutely oppressed minority in history." When abortion is discussed you should know the following things.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THAT ON THE DAY SUSAN SMITH KILLED HER LITTLE BOYS MORE THAN 4,000 OTHER CHILDREN WERE KILLED BY THEIR MOTHERS. Each day of each week more than 4,000 unborn babies are murdered in our nation. In the Bible the same word is used to describe a child already born (II Tim. 3:15) and a child unborn (Luke 1:44). Both Susan Smith and more than 4,000 other mothers that day killed their children.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THAT SUSAN SMITH AND MORE THAN 4,000 OTHER WOMEN BROUGHT AN END TO THE LIVES OF THEIR CHILDREN BY CRUEL BARBARIC MEANS ON THAT SAD DAY. An outraged nation said she should be strapped in a car and run into the same lake! In some abortions the baby is simply cut and torn to pieces, in others it is killed with various solutions and in some abortions; the live baby is taken by Casearean Section and then simply disposed of. Abortions always are fatal to the baby. "These six things the Lord hates, Yes, seven are an abomination to him: A proud look, A lying tongue, Hands that shed innocent blood," (Prov. 6:16,17).

YOU SHOULD KNOW THAT THOUGH SUSAN SMITH DECEIVED A NATION ABOUT THE MURDER OF HER CHILDREN GOD KNEW, AND GOD KNOWS WHEN UNBORN CHILDREN ARE MURDERED. God knew David (Psalm 139:13-15) and Jeremiah while they were in their mother's womb. "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you: Before you were born I sanctified you; I ordained you a prophet to the nations." (Jeremiah 1:5) God recognized them as human life while in the womb. One has no more right to destroy human life in the womb than Susan Smith had to destroy the lives of her sons in that automobile.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THAT SUSAN SMITH WAS MORALLY WRONG WHEN SHE MURDERED HER CHILDREN AND THOSE WHO PARTICIPATE IN ABORTION ARE MORALLY WRONG. God is the giver of life. "Nor is he worshipped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives to all life, breath, and all things." (Acts 17:25) Susan Smith took away that which was a gift of God. She showed no love and no "natural affection." (Romans 1:31) May God help us open our eyes to Holocaust far greater than when the Nazis brutally exterminated several million.

"Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." (Proverbs 14:34)

Thanks For The Help

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you ladies who prepared food for our lectureship as well as all of you men who brought it to the church. And I would especially like to thank the ladies who helped me in the kitchen which are Mildred, Lucille, Edna, Dot, and June. I would also like to thank the gentlemen that helped us, W.C. Woodrow, and Jim. We couldn't have done this without all of you. Thank you so much.

Mary Davis

Mary deserves a big pat on the back for the job she did in organizing the food. It was great!

A Letter to the Editor

Several years ago a reader of the British Weekly wrote a letter to the editor as follows:

"Dear Sir! I noticed that ministers seem to set a great deal of importance on their sermons and spend a great deal of time in preparing them. I have been attending services quite regularly for the past 30 years and during that time, if I estimate correctly, I have listened to no less than 3,000 sermons. But, to my consternation, I discover I cannot remember a single one of them. I wonder if a minister's time might be more profitably spent on something else? Sincerely."

The letter kicked up quite an editorial storm of angry responses for weeks. The pros and cons of sermons were tossed back and forth until, finally, one letter ended the debate. This letter said:

"My Dear Sir: I have been married for 30 years. During that time I have eaten 32,850 meals, mostly my wife's cooking. Suddenly I have discovered that I cannot remember the menu of a single meal. And yet, I received nourishment from every one of them. I have the distinct impression that without them, I would have starved to death long ago. Sincerely."

Shut-ins

The following is a list of the shut-ins that we know about. We plan to print a list of these in the bulletin the second week of every month. If you know someone that should be on the list that we have left off, please let us know. We have listed those who have not been able to attend services in the past several weeks.

Sympathy

We want to extend sympathy to the family of Edna McClain. Her funeral was this past Monday at Highs. Sister McClain attended Bybee Branch while she lived at Arms Apartments.

Mission Meeting

There will be a Gospel Meeting at the East Macon church of Christ this coming weekend, August 18-20. Thurman Bennett will be preaching in this meeting. Any who would like to go and work in this meeting are encouraged to see him.

Gospel Meetings

Central church of Christ, August 13-18, with Hardeman Nichols speaking.

Baptism & Restoration

By oversight we left out of last week's bulletin the announcement that Beth Reynolds was baptized into Christ on Sunday morning, July 30. We wish her well on her birth into Christ.

Last Wednesday evening Lori Judkins came forward asking for the prayers of the congregation. May God bless these two young ladies.

Opryland Trip

The trip to Opryland is schedule for Tuesday, August 22. The bus will be going but it looks now if the number will be more than the bus will hold and a few will need to carry their cars. The cost for the tickets will be $18.94 for age 12-adults and $13.75 for children 4-11. This trip is for young and old alike! If you have any questions, see Steve Hillis.

One Phone Call From you Can:

1. Show love and concern for someone.
2. Help you learn the needs of others.
3. Encourage those who are downhearted.
4. Comfort those lonely and depressed.
5. Cheer and reassure the suffering.
6. Strengthen those who are sad or weak.
7. Promote love, good work and harmony.

WHY NOT CALL SOMEONE NOW?

Pre-Campbell Christians

The common tendency to recognize a religious sect as having been founded by a certain personage has customarily identified the churches of Christ as owing their beginnings to Alexander Campbell in 1813. Thus, in some circles, we have held the dubious distinction of being referred to as "Campbellites." In a recent article taken from a bulletin in Duncan, Oklahoma, this interesting quotation appeared as a documentary research of a Dr. Robinson, principal of Overdale College, Birmingham, England.

"In the Furness District of Lancashire, in Northwest England, there existed in 1669, during the reign of Charles II, a group of eight churches of Christ. Most of them are not now in existence. An old minute book has been found of the year, 1669, and it shows that they called themselves by the name of church of Christ, practiced baptism by immersion, and had elders and deacons. There was also a church of Christ in Dungannon, Ireland, in 1804 and in Allington, Dengigshire. In 1735, John Davis, a young preacher in Fife District of Scotland, was preaching New Testament Christianity twenty-five years before Thomas Campbell (Alexander Campbell's father) was born."

~Millersville Bulletin~

[Note: One can quite easily show that the church of our Lord today is in organization and content the same church of Christ as described in the Bible. However, some men's minds are influenced by what they perceive in history. As the above article demonstrates there were obviously churches of Christ in existence long before Thomas and Alexander Campbell. Even here in our county we have proof of such also. The church at Old Philadelphia predates the Campbells part in the restoration movement. TL]

1995th PSALM

Recreation is my shepherd, I shall not stay home; it maketh me to lie down in a sleeping bag; it leadeth me down the interstate each weekend. It restoreth my suntan; it leadeth me to state parks for comfort's sake. Even though I stray on the Lord's Day, I will fear no reprimand, for I am relaxed; my rod and reel comfort me. I annoiest my skin with oil, my gas tank never runneth dry; surely my trailer shall follow me all the weekends of the summer, and I shall return to the House of the Lord this Fall.

But . . . by then it will be hunting season, and that's another psalm!!!!

An Alarming Death Notice

We are sorry to announce the passing of Mr. Midweek Service. He died recently at the Neglected Church on Ho Hum Avenue. Born many years ago, he was once strong and healthy. He grew as he was fed on zeal and sincere Bible study. His influence was felt worldwide and he has rightly been considered as the most influential member of the church's family.

However, in recent years Mr. Midweek Service has been in failing health, wasting away until rendered helpless by stiffness of knee, cooling of the heart, and a lack of spiritual sensitivity. He was quoted as whispering some last words about the absence of his loved ones. We have also been informed that Midweek's wife, Mrs. Sunday Evening Service, has just been admitted to the local hospital. Preliminary test by Dr. I.M. Unconcerned, revealed the same disease that struck her husband down has now infected her and has greatly diminished her strength. At this point her disease also appears to be terminal. Her recovery depends upon care and concern.

What I Saw Recently at a Football Game

I saw a lady who has a nervous condition "which will not permit her to go around a crowd."

I saw a family there who feels "embarrassed" about "not having enough to put in the collection plate."

I saw several who cannot come to the evening services of the church "because their work will not permit it."

Yes, I almost forgot to mention seeing others there who "cannot drive at night."

Some of the people there felt indignant at the preacher's mentioning need for them to attend worship services regularly; yet, they had "season tickets" in their possession. I even saw a family there with their guests, who had "unexpected company drop in" — just before game time.

Don't Offend Anyone

Jesus and the apostles had left the upper room where he had celebrated the Passover with them and had instituted the Lord's Supper. He was seeking to make firm their faith in view of his crucifixion which would occur within hours. Jesus spoke of the closeness of His relationship to His followers by teaching that He was the Vine and they were the branches. He spoke of His deep love for them - that He would lay down His life for them. He called them His friends. He promised that He would send the comforter (the Holy Spirit) to guide, help, and strengthen them when He was gone.

Jesus then concluded by saying, "These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended" (John 16:1 KJV). The word we must notice is "offended," since it holds the key to our understanding of this passage.

The Revised Standard Version translated the verse this way: "I have said all this to you to keep you from falling away." Instead of "offended" we now have "falling away."

The New International Version translates the verse, "All this I have told you so that you will not go astray."

The Greek word that has been translated by these three different ways was a complex word. It conveyed the thoughts of all three of our English words - "offended," "fall away," and "go astray." In English it is spelled skandalizo. Our English word "scandal" comes from that word. Bauer is his Greek lexicon defines it in this way: "cause to be caught or to fall, cause to sin; be led into sin, be repelled by someone, take offense at someone, give offense to, anger, shock."

Jesus did not want his death to "offend" his apostles to the degree that they would cease to follow Him or believe that what He had taught them was for nothing. What a shock His death was to them. They did have a hard time dealing with it. He had to reaffirm their faith, strengthen them and bring them back into His fellowship.

We try not to "offend" believers and non-Christians alike by the Gospel we preach. We do not want to "offend" anyone so as to make them quit the church or never become a Christian.

If you have quit the church and the Lord, (and I mean by that you never or hardly ever meet for worship on the Lord's Day, etc.) was the word or event that offended you of such magnitude as the "offense" of Jesus' death for the apostles?

I have heard some of the "offenses" that have caused people to quit the church. "The members were not all friendly." "I was in the hospital and not one from the church visited me." ("No I didn't let anyone know I was there") "All they ever talk about is money." "There are hypocrites in the church." "The sermons are dull." "Sunday is the only day I really have to rest and get things done around the house." And you can add to this list.

What many are "offended" by today pales into significance when we think of what caused the apostles to fall away only for a few days - the crucifixion of Jesus. Hey! Don't be so easily offended!

Mending the Nets

When Jesus called James and John to follow Him, they were: "in the ship mending their nets" (Mark 1:19).

These men of Galilee earned their living by fishing and thus knew the importance of keeping their nets properly repaired. Can you imagine how fruitless their toil would have been if the nets were full of holes, separations and tears? Very little success could be expected under such circumstances. Surely one laboring under such a handicap would soon become discouraged and despair of fishing. Would he not be prone to throw up his hands and ask, "What is the use?"

Remember now that Jesus said, "The kingdom of Heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind" (Matt. 13:47).

How sad it is that our great work of fishing for men is hampered by the fact that we have to work with a net which is riddled and torn full of holes. About one-half of the members of the church refuse to be involved. As a result, even the faithful are prone to become discouraged.

If we attain a measure of success under present conditions, just think of what could be accomplished with the full cooperation of every member. But our net will never be mended as long as we cannot depend upon YOUR help.

Someone has said, "The church is filled with willing people. Some willing to work and the others are willing to let them." Please help to change this! Enable us to see the day when with mended nets we shall cast into the depths of the sea!

~John Gipson~

Where is Happiness Found?

NOT IN UNBELIEF — Voltaire was an infidel and of the most pronounced type. He wrote: "I wish I had never been born."

NOT IN PLEASURE — Lord Byron lived a life of pleasure, if anyone did. He wrote: "The worm, the canker and grief are mine alone."

NOT IN MONEY — Jay Gould, the American millionaire, had plenty of that. When dying, he said: "I suppose I am the most miserable man on earth."

NOT IN POSSESSION OR FAME — Lord Beaconsfield enjoyed more than his share of both. He wrote: "Youth is a mistake, manhood a struggle, old age a regret."

NOT IN MILITARY — Alexander the Great conquered the known world of his day. Having done so, he wept in his tent because, he said, "There are no more worlds to conquer."

WHERE, THEN? — The simple answer: "In Christ alone." He said, "I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh away from you." (John 16:22)

Pass the Nail Clippers

"Why is the church of Christ so rowdy?" asked a recent convert from denominationalism. "What do you mean?" I replied. "Why, the people in the assembly talk and move around right up until the last moment, and then they turn on their worship. One lady in there tonight leaned across me and asked the lady sitting beside me if she could borrow her nail clippers when she finished. Later, she had the nerve to ask me to pass the nail clippers, upon observing the lady had finished clipping her nails."

If you think this is an isolated, never-to-happen-again case, you are wrong. After having preached in twenty-five states and several foreign countries, I can recall incident after incident of this kind. Incidents that were very distracting as one sought to worship God in the assembly. In our attempts to escape the formalism of denominationalism we have, in some cases, gone to the other extreme. In worship services to the living God one may be distracted by one or more of the following:

1. The clipping of finger nails. This sounds like a hammer hitting an anvil.
2. Passing notes. Some spend their time in the worship service playing Postman.
3. Daydreaming. From time to time this person has to be nudged to pass the communion trays.
4. Sleeping. This certainly distracts; especially when the person snores.
5. Whispering. This interferes with the listening comprehension of those next to you.
6. Kicking the pews. This sounds like a drummer sending a signal to a distant land.
7. A screaming child. If not soon quieted, can disturb the whole congregation.
8. The smacking of chewing gum. I have even seen some blow bubbles during worship services.
9. Shuffling and playing with songbooks is very distracting during prayer or communion.
10. Sitting on the end of the pew. This person hinders by preventing persons from getting in or out. You have to "climb" over some to occupy a seat.
11. Needless walking in and out of the services. In some congregations there is a constant "parade" in the services.
12. Going to the front to adjust the thermostat. In one congregation I saw a man and a woman take turns during the service going to the front to check or adjust the setting. (This is no criticism of those who are supposed to take care of such matters and who must, from time to time, do so during a service - dj.)
13. Continually slapping a child on the leg (just enough to make the child mad).
14. Tearing and wadding of paper. (I have seen boys shoot spitballs.)
15. The child that crawls in the aisle or under the pews is very distracting, too.
16. Playing with children (i.e. winking or waving at them).
17. Winding a watch. For some unknown reason many wait until worship services to wind their "Big Ben."
18. Filing fingernails is another very distracting thing.

There are those who will respond to these observation by saying, "Oh, don't be so petty. None of these things bother me." While this may well be the case for some rare persons, how about the scores who are distracted during worship? As children of God we must be interested in building up one another. To do this we must do things "decently and in order." We must be considerate of one another; not doing anything that will offend or distract. May we not forget that the flesh is weak. Therefore, let us work on being more reverent in worship.

Humility In The Lord's Work

F.B. Syrgley, News & Notes editor of Gospel Advocate, received a news letter from a young preacher and brother Syrgley failed to put it in the News & Notes column. Two weeks later the young preacher wrote brother Syrgley asking if he had received his report. Brother Syrgley still didn't put the report in the Advocate. Several weeks later the young preacher wrote again asking, "Why haven't you printed my report in the G.A.?" Brother Syrgley replied, "My dear young brother, we don't have enough 'I's' in the print shop."

Bible Bowl This Sunday!

The first Bible Bowl meeting will be this Sunday afternoon at the New Hope congregation (on old Hwy 70 on the other side of Woodbury). The bus will leave the church parking lot at 1:15. Any who wish are invited to go. The test for this month will cover John 1:1-4:42.

Thoughts and Observations

Some church members are stand-byers and some are by-standers.

Beware of your spiritual condition when the most pleasing part of the service is the closing song and dismissal.

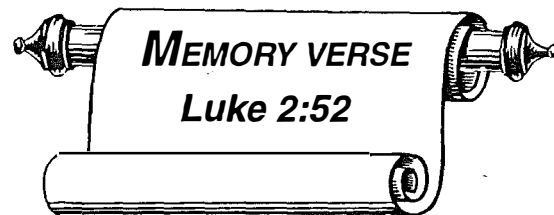

You quickly lose interest in the church if you have nothing invested.

A church is no more to be blamed for the bad people in it, than a hospital is to be blamed for the sick folk that are in it.

You will enjoy the service more if you do not sit in the seat of the scornful.

The Church is not a select circle for the elite, but a spiritual center for the elect.

A.M. Growing Through Goals
P.M. God's Plan For Church Government/Elders

Growing Churches

Sometimes we are prone to complain about certain inconveniences at church. Complaints about children running, crying or talking in worship, passing notes. Complaints about space, too little parking space, seating, or someone in our place. We complain about money, too little, not enough in the church's bank account. Consider for a moment that all of these are signs of life and growth. Rather than seeing these as reasons for complaints, they should be viewed as signs of a growing church.

Growing churches are always looking for more room to grow. Dead churches do not have a lack of space problem.

Growing churches are always changing things. Dead churches do the same things over and over, year after year.

Growing churches have noisy children running in the halls, going to class, playing with each other. Dead churches have lost all of their young people from neglect and criticism.

Growing churches struggle to remember each others' names. Dead churches do not have new names, or new faces, or new souls. Just the "chosen few."

Growing churches will often overspend their budget. Dead churches seek security in maintaining a large bank account.

Growing churches are constantly seeking new and effective ways to minister to the lost and to members. Dead churches are comfortable with what they have always done. Nothing is new, and no one is encouraged or saved.

Which church do you think the Lord is pleased with? Some of the very things that are the subject of complaints are the results of the way of God is blessing us. The next time you see that little one, experience a shortage of space, see something change; thank God for the opportunities and growth.

~Russell Cook • The Christian Light • Jackson, TN~

Five Rules for Happiness

1. Cultivate the habit of always looking on the bright side of every experience.
2. Accept cheerfully the place in life that is yours, believe that it is the best possible place for you.
3. Throw your whole soul and spirit into your work, and do it best you know how.
4. Get into the habit of doing bits of kindness and courtesies to all those who touch your life each day.
5. Adopt and maintain a simple, childlike attitude of confidence and trust in God as your own Father.

False Alarm

A teacher saw a group of children kneeling in the corner of the playground. She immediately reported their activity to the principal. The principal called the children into his office and requested an explanation. "Playing studpoker," they replied.

"Oh, thank goodness," sighed the teacher. "We thought you were praying."

If We Had But One Sermon to Hear

It has been said that preachers, as dying men, preach to dying men. Some people heard their last sermon last Sunday. Others will hear their last sermon this week. If we knew that we had only one sermon to hear, what would we like that sermon to be?

1. We should not want it to be a sermon to sooth our itching ears, because this is not soul saving preaching. This kind consists of fables, but not the WORD which will save our souls. (II Timothy 4:1-4) The idea of everybody is all right, take your choice, or do what you think is right, is not the preaching of the apostle.
2. We should not want to hear a dramatic lesson with theatrical effects to stir our emotions, but have nothing for our intellect. The great swelling words of vanity are characteristic of false teachers, but are really clouds without water. (Jude 12-13)
3. We should want clear and plain preaching of the gospel without any effort made to spare our feelings, but which will clearly show us our duty to the Lord. This preaching should include the plan of salvation as found in the Great Commission. (Mark 16:15-16; Matthew 28:19-20; Luke 24:46-47) This preaching should rebuke sin and compliment righteousness.
4. We should want Christ exalted as Savior and Lord. This twofold teaching is what causes people to escape the pollutions of the world. (II Peter 2:20) We should want to be challenged to receive Christ as Lord and to walk in Him. (Col. 2:6)
5. We should want to be challenged by this last sermon to greater love; (John 13:34-35) greater works; (I Cor. 15:58) closer prayer life; (I Thess. 5:17) more meaningful worship; (John 4:24) and to be a dedicated life of purity. (James 1:26-27)
6. We should want our shortcomings to be rebuked and our sins brought out so we would see the need of repentance. (Numbers 32:32; Luke 12:2; 13:3,5) We should want exposed the things that are contrary to the will of God, such as the works of the flesh. (Gal. 5:19-21) God holds responsible if we do these things.
7. We should want all religious error exposed so we would not be guilty of practicing it. We should want Paul's statement that if any other gospel is preached than that which he has preached, then let it be accursed. (Gal. 1:8) The idea of "faith only" saving someone should be shown by James 2:17-26 to be false. The doctrine of "praying through" should be shown by Matt. 7:21-23 to be false. Any other false way must be exposed in the searchlight of the word of God.
8. We should want chapter and verse preaching from the word of God. Peter's sermon on Pentecost day had quotations from Joel 2:28-32; Psalm 16:8-11; 101:1; and II Sam. 7:11-12 (Acts 2:14-36). Every sermon preached by an apostle or one the apostles laid their hands on, was chocked full of scriptures. They gave an authoritative Gospel because they were inspired and they proved beyond a shadow of doubt what they said by the Scriptures. The only authoritative preaching today is the unbiased preaching of the Word of God.
9. We should want that last sermon to have a tender appeal to obey the Lord. As Paul stated, "Knowing the terror of the Lord we persuade men." (II Cor. 5:11) On Pentecost day, Peter answered their inquiry with "repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." (Acts 2:38) Then he with many other words testified and exhorted them to save themselves from that untoward (crooked) generation. (Acts 2:40) The Lord instructs his servants to go out into the highways and hedges, and compel men to come in. (Luke 14:23) The closing chapter of the Bible states, "And the Spirit and the bride say, come. And let him that heareth say, come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will let him take of the water of life freely." (Rev. 22:17)

In short, if we had but one sermon to hear, we would want that sermon to include the TRUTH, the WHOLE TRUTH, and NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH.

Thailand Trip — September/October

I think this was the best trip that I have ever made. I visited several churches and villages where the church meets and some where the church does not meet. I had the opportunity to visit a number of public schools. Thanks to all who gave money. We bought Bibles and Christian books for the school libraries and helped many children who truly needed help.

We had asked in the newsletter for help to buy three motorcycles and a copy machine. A big thanks to those who helped with this. I was able to buy these while I was in the Northeast. Every Christian home and church I visited gave a big thanks to Bybees and the elders for helping the Christians and the church in Thailand.

It seems that more and more doors are being opened for the Lord's work in Northeast Thailand. I visited some villages where no Christians live. I was asked to come to their village and tell about the Church of Christ and to teach two or three days and nights. They said I could use their homes and they would invite people in their village and other close villages to come and hear.

I want to thank the elders for making it possible for me to visit for the last three weeks in Thailand and thanks to all who remembered me in your prayers. May God bless Bybee and all who have helped in this work in Northeast Thailand.

~Thurman Bennett~

Tips on How to Get Along with People

1. Keep chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a pleasant, persuasive voice. How you say it often counts more than what you say.
2. Make promises sparingly and keep them faithfully.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind word to somebody. Praise good work done, regardless of who did it. If correction is needed, criticize helpfully, never in a destructive manner.
4. Be genuinely interested in others. Let everyone you meet feel that you regard him or her as a person of importance.
5. Be cheerful. Keep the corners of your mouth turned up. Hide your pains, worries, and disappointments under a smile.
6. Keep an open mind on all controversial questions. Discuss without arguing. It is possible to disagree and yet be friendly.
7. Never engage in gossip. Make it a rule to say nothing about another unless it is something good.
8. Be careful of other people's feelings. A laugh at another's expense is rarely worth the effort, and it may hurt where least expected.
9. Pay no attention to cutting remarks that others may make about you. Learn to live above such comments.
10. Don't be too anxious about your rights and having favors repaid. Let the satisfaction of helping others serve as its own reward.

Thanks: Bus Repair

As many of you have noticed, the church bus has undergone a major repair on the inside. The floor was totally replaced with new carpet and the seats were reupholstered. This was done with a number of members helping. Thanks to John Biddle, Leonard Clemons, Dale Bennett, Willie Newby, Brett Merritt, Rodney Reynolds, Huston Thaxton, and especially Kelly Thaxton for all of the volunteer work which literally saved several hundred dollars. Also, thanks to Steve Hillis and Gardner Manufacturing for a generous donation of the material to cover the seats. Porter Roofing donated a large piece of rubber to go under the flooring to prevent future damage to the floor. If you have an opportunity, be sure to give a word of encouragement to all who helped, especially Kelly.

Three Excellent Lessons

Bybee Branch is a congregation blessed with an extraordinary amount of talent. There are many men who have the capacity to stand in the pulpit and delivery sermons of sound doctrine. Our sermon preparation class on Wednesday evening has 18 fine and faithful Christian men who are striving to improve their abilities to serve the Lord. Three of those men delivered lessons Sunday evening. Brethren Johnny Anderson, Joe Collins, and Ronnie Rogers demonstrated their knowledge of the Word, love for the Lord and ability to communicate that Word by delivering three lessons on the Christian example at work, at home, and in the church.

As I sat and listened to the lessons I thought how great it was to be a part of a congregation where there are those who want to improve themselves in God's service. We all ought to want to invest and develop our talents for serving the Lord (cf. Matthew 25:14-30). Please commend these good brethren "and let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works" (Hebrews 10:24, NKJV).

Let Me Give:

I do not know how long I'll live
But while I live, Lord, let me give
Some comfort to someone in need
By smile or nod — kind word or deed
And let me do what e'er I can
To ease things for my fellow man.
I want naught but to do my part
To "lift" a tired or weary heart.
To change folks frowns to smiles again—
Then I will not have lived in vain
And I'll not care how long I'll live
If I can give — and give — and give.

What am I Saying When I Assemble With the Saints?

May we cultivate and maintain the attitude of David who said, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord" (Psalm 122:1). How sad it is to see empty seats when we assemble to worship our God! (Heb. 10:25) Attending worship services is more important that we may think. Let us notice a few things that I am saying when I assemble with the saints.

I am saying that I need to maintain my spiritual growth. If you take a coal of fire and lay it on the hearth, it will grow cold and die. Likewise, if a Christian stays away from the Lord's work, he will grow cold and die spiritually. There is no exception to this rule.

I am saying I love the Lord and want to be with Him. The Lord is present when we assemble (Matt. 18:20). We enjoy being in the presence of those we love.

I am saying I feel I need to go and am needed. Christians need the association, the teaching, the prayers, and the spiritual communion which can come only from God's people. Yes, we need each other.

I am saying I need to satisfy my spiritual appetite (Matt. 5:6; I Pet. 2:1-2). If we were to lose our physical appetite we would look at it as a danger signal. When one starts missing worship services why is it that we do not look at this as a danger signal?

I am saying I need to set a good example. We teach by example. What kind of advice are we giving by our absenteeism? What kind of advice are we giving to our children? (Eph. 6:4). What kind of advice are we giving to our companion? (Matt. 5:16) What kind of advice are we giving to non-Christian neighbors? (Matt. 5:16) What kind of advice are we giving to new babes in Christ?

I am saying I expect others to attend. Would you want to be a part of a congregation where the preachers, elders, and deacons consistently and unnecessarily absented themselves from the services? If I do not attend, I am saying I do not expect them to attend (Matt. 7:1-5; Rom. 2:21).

I am saying I want a good conscience. When we miss the first service our conscience is hurt. After missing several times the conscience becomes seared. We do not feel guilt any more. (Read I John 3:20-21).

I am saying I want to be in subjection to the elders (Heb. 13:7, 17).

I am saying I do not want to backslide. One of the first indications of ultimate apostasy is absenteeism. Going back into the world is an awful thing (II Pet. 2:20-22).

I am saying I want to walk in the footsteps of the early saints (Acts 2:42; 20:7).

I am saying I do not want to close the doors of the church. If every member of the congregation missed the same time I missed, the church doors would be closed! Am I voting to close the doors of the church building?

I am saying I do not want to rob God. The first day of the week is the Lord's day (Rev. 1:10). Is it right to take that which belongs to God and use it for my own selfish desires? Israel, long ago, robbed God (Mal. 3:8). Today, we can rob God of money and of time.

I am saying I do not want to disobey God (Heb. 10:25). Hebrews 10:25 does not apply to those who are unable to attend. However, it does apply to those who could be present and those who are unconcerned and indifferent toward the assembly.

Saving the Family

Parenting is a great challenge to most people. We all must realize and accept the fact that there are no perfect parents. Most of the time parenting is taken for granted until it is too late. It could make a big difference if young parents accepted the challenge to equip themselves for better parenting.

By making some basic decisions and by addressing the needs of children during early years, parents can better equip families for the teenage years. What decisions can we make to guide our children? Here are nine keys to better parenting:

1. Make plans to create the feelings you want your children to take with them when they leave your home.
2. Be sure that your children have the security of knowing that their parents love each other.
3. Be sure your child knows that whatever happens you will always love them.
4. Be sure your child knows that you will take time to listen.
5. Be sure you tell your children when they do things right. Affirmation is a must for children to develop self-confidence and worth.
6. Be sure to discipline your child in a fair and consistent manner.
7. Children know parents make mistakes and will respond positively to "Will you forgive me?"
8. Encourage them to develop their own hopes and dreams, not relive your life.
9. Be sure to give your children the opportunity to develop a faith to live by and purpose to live for.

Be sure to keep your family on the front burner!

Divorce Statistics (Part 1)

A couple months ago I signed up for a connection on the Internet. One of my purposes for getting "on the net" was to get current statistics on a variety of subjects. The other day while doing some research for a sermon, I came across a source for vital statistics for our country. One report was entitled, Advance Report of Final Divorce Statistics, 1989 and 1990. This was published under the auspices of the US Department of Health and Human Services. As such was paid for by tax dollars all the information (and included charts) are in the public domain. This 32 page report gave statistics for almost every conceivable facet of the subject. In this, and following articles I would like to report some of these figures along with their accompanying charts and make some observations while noticing what the Bible teaches on the subject.

The world has only begun to understand that the way of the transgressor is hard (Prov. 13:15). When one sows to the flesh he will reap corruption (Gal. 6:7,8). God, in His divine wisdom, has provided man with not only the correct way but the happiest way. God knows the sorrow and heartache which come from divorce. Such is the reason Malachi records God saying, "For the LORD God of Israel says That He hates divorce, For it covers one's garment with violence," Says the LORD of hosts. "Therefore take heed to your spirit, That you do not deal treacherously." (Malachi 2:16, NKJV). One of those hurt so badly in divorce is the children. The violence that children suffer in divorce is deplorable. As the chart below will show, the number of children suffering from divorce has risen steadily with the number of divorces. Since the 1980's there are roughly between 1 and 1.2 million children suffering annually through their parents divorce. Perhaps these parents should consider the statement of Jesus, "But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea." (Matthew 18:6, NKJV). "Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 18:10, NKJV). (To be continued next week...)

A Thankful Heart

It is a common failing to ask continually for more, and to forget the many favors that we receive from day to day. For some reason, our desire for self-gratification pushes into the background our sense of appreciation.

A good friend is a treasure without price who ministers to us in many ways and helps to make easier the daily path. One goes to him constantly for association, advice and help, yet this friend is seldom given the credit due him but is often taken for granted.

God, through Jesus Christ, is the best friend that we can have. He ministers always to our needs and loves us in spite of our failings. Surely, He merits, and should have, all our devotion and our thanks and yet, we continue to forget.

This is a good time of the year to start all over again. All of us have received many blessings. Some have regained health; others have found the strong arm of God sufficient to lean upon and have received grace to weather the storm. Bread has not failed us and we have obtained both covering for our bodies and shelter. We continue to live in a land where one can worship God. The list goes on and on. For Christians, every event of life can be a manifestation of God's grace.

From early childhood we learn to ask for blessings; just as often, we forget to thank God for His gifts. One who asks in faith will not forget and God will not forget to continue His blessings. He has great joy in the appreciative heart.

~J.H. McCaleb~

Divorce Statistics (Part 2)

Last week we began a two part article dealing with divorce. These articles were prompted by a report entitled, Advance Report of Final Divorce Statistics, 1989 and 1990. This was published under the auspices of the US Department of Health and Human Services. Last week we observed the number of children which were affected by the large number of divorces which are occurring in our country. In this installment we want to consider two additional thoughts: Ages at which divorces occur and the relationship of the duration of the marriage and divorce.

We all know that as we grow older we generally mature. Our perspective of life and its related relationships characteristically become more stable. Youth are encouraged to consider carefully a mate because marriage is to be for life. This is a wise admonition. As the chart "Figure 2" (lower left) shows, marriages entered into from ages 15-25 have an escalating number of divorces. However, after 25 the rate begins to fall dramatically.

The other relevant piece of information that is valuable is the relationship of the duration of marriages to divorce. The divorce rate peaks at 3 years and drops off considerably through the next seven years. This means that if a couple can weather the first few years then the likelihood of their remaining together increases substantially.

What do these statistics have to do with the church and our faith. They simply bear out what we know the Bible teaches. The Bible teaches young people (all) to make their choices carefully (Ecc. 11:9ff). Paul, in I Corinthians 7, reminds Christians of the mutual obligations which mates have to one another and that these should not be entered into without careful consideration. The Bible also stresses the idea of permanence in marriage. If one begins with the commitment that this marriage must be preserved and struggles to make it last, then as one matures he begins to see the fruit of that commitment, an increased stability within the home.

God knows best for man to have a happy, enduring home. If more people would commit themselves to follow God's plan for marriage, divorce would go away and all of the negative things associated with it. (T.L.)

Sympathy

We want to extend sympathy to the family of Cassie McBride. Her funeral was Monday at Highs.

We also want to extend sympathy to the family of Lee King (sister of our Flossie Smartt). Her funeral was Monday at Coffee County Funeral Chapel.

Youth Project

For the past several years the Senior High Class has taken on the project of buying gifts for those in the nursing homes who have no family. They will do this again this year. If you would like to help them in this project, please give your money to any of the elders.

Restoration

We rejoice that Judy Payne came forward Sunday evening to be restored. Please pray for her as we all pray for one another living the Christian life.

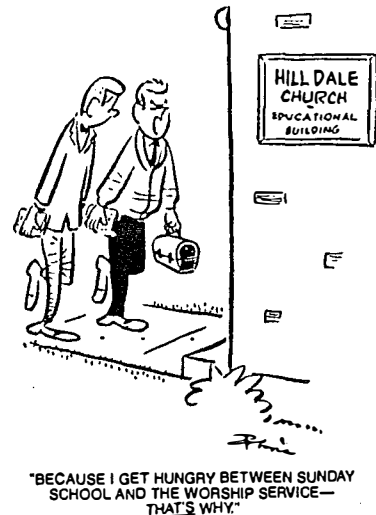

Bible Bowl

This month's Bible Bowl will be here at Bybee Branch this coming Sunday afternoon at 2:00. We want to encourage everyone to come and support our young people. You will be greatly encouraged by the enthusiasm of these great kids. The test for this month's Bible Bowl will cover John 7-9.

Please bring cookies by Sunday morning for the Bible Bowl if you can.

School Of Bible Emphasis

The School of Bible Emphasis that meets at the Mt. Leo congregation will be held this coming Monday night, December 11, at 7:00 p.m. These are excellent opportunities to study God's word in-depth. All are welcome.

Can You Believe It?

What man among us is willing to say that he believes in God and yet claims that it is impossible to understand the Bible and for all to see it alike? In saying this we would be making God responsible for all the divisions, false teaching, differences, creeds, human teachings, perversions, changes, omissions, additions, wrestlings, etc.

Who can believe in a God who would give us a book to live by, knowing all the while that it is useless for us to try to understand it correctly and to see it alike, and yet, in that book, charge us to not be divided (I Cor. 1:10) place an anathema on us for perverting the Gospel of Christ (Gal. 1:5-9), tell us of the destruction of false teachers (Rev. 20:10), and give warnings concerning false teachings (Acts 20:23-32)?

Think carefully about the consequences of what you are saying when you make that charge.

It is not ours to improve upon the Gospel, but to repeat it when we preach; and obey it when we hear!

A Letter to the Editor

Several years ago a reader of the British Weekly wrote a letter to the editor as follows:

"Dear Sir! I noticed that ministers seem to set a great deal of importance on their sermons and spend a great deal of time in preparing them. I have been attending services quite regularly for the past 30 years and during that time, if I estimate correctly, I have listened to no less than 3,000 sermons. But, to my consternation, I discover I cannot remember a single one of them. I wonder if a minister's time might be more profitably spent on something else? Sincerely."

The letter kicked up quite an editorial storm of angry responses for weeks. The pros and cons of sermons were tossed back and forth until, finally, one letter ended the debate. This letter said:

"My Dear Sir: I have been married for 30 years. During that time I have eaten 32,850 meals, mostly my wife's cooking. Suddenly I have discovered that I cannot remember the menu of a single meal. And yet, I received nourishment from every one of them. I have the distinct impression that without them, I would have starved to death long ago. Sincerely."

Prepare Communion

There is a sheet on the bulletin board for those willing to prepare the communion in 1996. If you would be willing to do this, please sign the list.

Counting Calories

A recent report by the Southern California Medical Association pointed out that proper weight control and physical fitness cannot be attained by dieting alone. Many people who are engaged in sedentary occupations do not realize that calories can be burned by the hundreds by engaging in strenuous exercises that do not require physical exercise. The following is a list of calorie burning activities and the number of calories per hour they consume.

Beating around the bush	75
Jumping to conclusions	100
Climbing the walls	150
Swallowing your pride	50
Passing the buck	25
Throwing your weight around (Depending upon your weight)	50-300
Dragging your heels	100
Pushing your luck	250
Making mountains out of molehills	500
Hitting the nail on the head	50
Wading through paperwork	300
Bending over backwards	75
Jumping on the bandwagon	200
Balancing the books	23
Running around in circles	350
Eating crow	225
Tooting your own horn	25
Climbing the ladder of success	750

~Reprinted from the Foreign Service Medical Bulletin~

At Year's End

The old year ends, a new begins
With pages clean and new;
And what is written on each page
Will now depend on you.
You can't relive the year that's past,
Erasing every wrong;
For once a year — or day — is spent,
It is forever gone.

But don't give up in dark despair,
If you have failed some test;
Seek God's forgiveness and resolve
Henceforth to do your best.

Resolve each precious day to do
Things good and kind and pure;
Though days and years may pass away,
These things shall still endure.

You know not where your path may lead
Nor what's beyond the hill;
But know your God walks at your side,
If you but do His will.
All things are possible with God,
Though days be bright or dim;
So do your best and know that you
Can leave the rest to Him.
